

We want YOU to be a part of the biggest celebration ever organized in Norton Schools history!

The Norton Band program is 100 years old and we want to celebrate with the largest alumni band ever assembled. You can take part as a performer, a marcher, or to just be there and recognized as part of one of the most consequential Norton organizations throughout the last 100 years.

Our official resource for info will be our Facebook Page - Norton Bands Centennial Celebrations 1924-2024: <https://www.facebook.com/nortonbandcentennial/>
Look for additional events happening as soon as May 2024.

Your opportunities to be a part of the fun is:

Centennial Grand Celebration

September 27-28 2024

- Grand Celebration Performance at Norton High Homecoming Football Game(Half-time and Post-game performances)

- Alumni Reunion!

Those interested, will be welcomed back on October 5, 2024 for Cider Fest Parade*

For those who prefer an inside, sit down experience:

Centennial World Premiere

May, 4, 2025

Alumni and present band members assembled into one Wind Ensemble to debut the "World Premiere" of a specially commissioned Centennial work by composer Jason Nitsch

Additional events may be added in April 2025, so keep watch.

(turn the page over for more info and registration)

We invite you to take part in all of the events or pick what best fits your schedule.
